

taxes been?

A They have varied.

Q Approximately? A. $38.00.

Q A year? A. Yes.

Q Have you got any of the tax bills?

MR. BURGEE: Your Honor, Mr. Fred Bower has been handling this case, but he had to go to the hospital to bring his wife home - she had a baby -

Q You have tax bills - have you turned them over to anyone? Who would have those receipts?

A The lawyer in New Haven always gets them and he calls me up and I send the money and he mails it on.

THE COURT: You could get them through the mail and file them - at least the last ones - to show they are the most recent taxpayers.

MR. BURGEE: Yes; in fact I can get a duplicate downstairs which would show the taxes paid.

THE COURT: Yes, I would like to see the tax bills.

WINIFRED E. EUBANKS, one of the Complainants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Burgee:

Q Will you state your name, address and occupation, please?

A Winifred E. Eubanks. My address is 29 Townsend Street, New Haven, Connecticut, and I have been doing domestic work, but not just in recent years. I just housewife, and my stepfather lives with me and I took care of him since my mother died.

Q (The Court) Are you a Henderson also?

A Yes, only two of us.

Q (Mr. Burgee) Mrs. Euganks, you are married?

A Yes.