

Treasurer of Frederick County. So that's the last taxes were paid for this year.

Q Is anyone living in the house at the present time?

A It is not liveable since that truck went through there.

Q And approximately when did the truck go through the house?

A The time my sister said: about four years or so. It has been hanging a long time, but they haven't made any settlement, and of course after that happened the tenant in there had to vacate.

Q That was a tenant by the name of what?

A Mr. Hill. My sister has seen him, but I haven't been to Petersville - she's been to Petersville since I have - but his name was Mr. Hill.

Q About how long was he on the property?

A About four years. But the rent lady would know all about it, that collected the rent, but I don't know exactly. I wasn't there when he moved, but I know he was there renting it.

Q He rented it and to whom did he pay the rent?

A To my sister, and it was sent to us.

Q The bill of complaint, the initial paper that has been filed in this case, shows the name of Henry W. Owens, Cora W. Taylor and Claude H. Taylor, and Winifred E. Eubanks and Arthur Eubanks, her husband, as the people who are seeking to have title vested in them. Mrs. Eubanks, could you tell me if to your knowledge these are the only five people who would have an interest in this property at the present time?

A Yes, sir.

Q No one else to your knowledge, unless Sarah Brooks could be found and would be alive at this time?

A That 's right.

Q Do you know of any descendants she would have?

A We haven't heard from her. We don't know whether she is living or whether she has passed. We haven't heard. We don't know where her location is.
