

isn't that correct?

A Yes.

Q When did your sister die?

A She died on the 30th day of September, 1962, I guess it was; yes, that's right.

Q Now, Mr. Davis, do you know how many persons are the beneficiaries under your sister's will?

A Honest, Mr. Brown, I could not tell you; to be exact I could not.

Q Mr. Davis, isn't it a fact besides yourself and your wife and Pauline Davis Sheets, widow, there are approximately forty-one other parties who are parties defendant in this case?

A I would think so, Mr. Brown.

Q Now, would you describe the property in which you are now residing, which is the subject of these proceedings?

A Well, I would say it is about eight miles from Frederick on the Ballenger Creek Pike about three miles this side of Point of Rocks. It is a brick home, six rooms, bath, oil heat, and she had storm windows over the whole house, new awnings, and there is probably an acre of ground.

Q Is this a well kept property, Mr. Davis?

A Well, I would say so, yes.

Q Now, Mr. Davis, you as Executor and one of the complainants in these proceedings, have you seen all the papers in this cause?

A Yes, sir.

Q In the bill of complaint that you have examined, prepared by Mr. Sheffield and I, have all the parties entitled thereto that have an interest in this property been named or made parties defendant?

A As far as I know they have.

Q To the best of your knowledge all parties defendant have been summoned or appear by order of publication in this cause which was
