

duly published?

A Yes.

Q What, in your opinion, Mr. Davis, is the value of this property?

A Well, Mr. Brown, I am a poor judge of anything like that, but I said from $14,000 to $15,000.

Q As one of the parties complainant and also as one of the beneficiaries under your sister's will, is this property susceptible to a division in kind? In other words, could the various parties in interest here have a portion of this property without great loss or injury?

A I wouldn't think they could.

Q In your opinion do you believe it would be to the best interests of all the parties involved that this property be sold and the proceeds therefrom divided among the parties in interest?

A I do.
