

WYE PARISH

QUEEN ANNE'S CO.

PARISH REGISTER

1886

1907

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK.

THE following suggestions and explanations may be of service to clergymen.

I.—FAMILIES.

1. Arrange them in the order in which each family became connected with the parish.
2. Give to each family, less than twelve in number, the space across the page between the horizontal red lines; thus keeping each family distinct, and leaving room to note subsequent changes. If the family contains twelve or more names, combine two of the horizontal spaces.
3. Write the ordinal number I, II, III, IV, etc., under the heading "Number," on the intersection of the double red lines.
4. Insert the maiden name of the wife. Place the names of children immediately after those of parents, and other names always in the second column.
5. The age recorded should correspond to the date in the first column.
6. The heading, B. C. C., indicates the abbreviations used respectively for those baptized, confirmed or communicants.
7. Deaths may be indicated by the mark (*) immediately before the names; removals by the mark (†).
8. A list of families thus kept will not need re-writing while the register lasts.

II.—BAPTISMS.

1. Day and Date. That is, ecclesiastical and civil date.
2. Place. If not in Church, state at what house.
3. In recording adult baptisms, write "adult" under the surname.
4. Give the family name of the mother, the residence of the parents, and the residence and relationship to the child of sponsors other than parents.
5. Every baptism should be authenticated, if possible, by the signature of the clergyman officiating.
6. Certifications of Private Baptisms, which were not performed in the parish, may be noted on the last line of the page; other certifications, under the "Day and Date," and "Place" of the Private Baptism.

III.—CONFIRMED.

1. Give names in full. Note the place, if other than the Church.
2. Baptism. If in the parish, a reference (by number or page) to entries of baptisms is sufficient; if elsewhere, give the name of the parish or religious body in which it was performed.

IV.—COMMUNICANTS.

1. "Day and Date"—of reception, or first Communion in the parish.
2. "Number"—as in all cases refers to the chronological order in which the names and date should be written.
3. Write the year distinctly above the names added for that year, leaving a blank line above and below it.
4. The narrow column immediately before the name is intended to show at a glance the deaths (*), removals (†), and suspensions or withdrawals (‡).
5. Write the maiden name of married women in a parenthesis before the surname; the surname added by marriage after becoming a communicant, in a parenthesis after the maiden name: e. g., Mrs. A—(B—) C—; Miss A—B—(C—). A representing the Christian name, B the maiden name, C the husband's name.
6. C. A. R. Denoted by C, those admitted to communion on their confirmation in the parish; A, those admitted otherwise, adding C, if subsequently confirmed; R, those received from another parish. In the latter case, give the name of the parish "whence received."
7. The name of the communicant returning after removal should, as a general rule, be re-entered at the foot of the list. Except in such cases, no name need be recorded more than once. If the removal is temporary or uncertain, the mark (‡) may be in pencil, and thus easily erased.

V.—MARRIAGES.

1. "Place" i. e. in Church; or at what house.
2. The names and residence of two or more special witnesses should be recorded.

VI.—BURIALS.

1. After the name of a wife, note that of her husband; after that of a child, those of its parents, &c.

VII.—INDEX.

It may often be found convenient to arrange the INDEX in the form of an Index Rerum, by dividing the space given to each initial into five subdivisions, heading each with an initial and vowel, the latter representing the first vowel of the name, as An, Ae, Ai, Ao, Auy, &c. The proportions of the vowels under different initials may be readily found by looking through any alphabetical list—as the Clergy List in the Church Almanac—or, still better, by first preparing a list from the Parish Records, and regulating the spaces accordingly.

ADVENT, 1859.

Tribute of Respect.

It is with heart-felt pleasure that I record in THE OBSERVER some of the beautiful traits of character possessed by Mr. J. P. Davidson, who has been identified with Queenstown since childhood and for many years a conspicuous and influential citizen in this community. In early life Mr. Davidson figured in the social world, winning many friends by his attractive manners. Warm-hearted, enthusiastic, full of ardor and plesantry, having a contempt for vice, always willing to contribute to the general good, his loss will be keenly felt. Mr. Davidson was noted for his attention to his family. Pains-taking, systematic and persevering in his duties, he made his well ordered home know him, performing those duties with precision and punctuality. I never passed this courteous gentleman on the public road that he did not lift his hat accompanied with a deferential bow, thus indicating his great respect for elderly ladies, and I have yet to hear an unkind word spoken of him. Truly "none knew him but to praise." His was a home where a tender heart was ever willing to respond to the wishes of all who dwelt within its walls. The bright star of "Beve ly," his lovely country seat, grew dim and flickered in the quiet of the night while weary, sorrowing eyes could weep no more, and hearts were chilled; then sank into a world of glory. That star shall "broaden in the night until it hangs divine" in heaven. The gentle wife may strew upon the green and quite grave sweet flowers—flowers planted and nursed by his willing hands for her enjoyment at home and for the decoration of their little church where they have knelt together year after year in sweet communion with their God. The faithful daughter may soothe the dead with love-songs, low and sweet;

Songs sung beneath the purple clouds,
Songs sung with heart-bent and a sigh,
Songs heard in heaven above the quiet skies
