

Pledge of amity given them by the former Governo<sup>rs</sup> of this Province, and was the said Meddall given to Major Truman or to any other English man, or was it Carried back againe into the forte.

U. H.
Journal
original

8<sup>y</sup> Did Major Truman stay at the North side of Puscattaway Creek till the Virginians came thither to him, or did he there treat with them Concerning the Mannagem<sup>t</sup> of the Warr ag<sup>t</sup> the Susquehannoughs

9<sup>y</sup> Did the Susquehannoughs ever offer any Treaty of peace or desire to Continue friendship and Whether did Major Truman ever demand satisfaction from them for any Injuries done or tell them they were the persons which we suspected had Injured vs.

The house adjourned Till 9 a Clock to morrow Morning.

On Wednesday May the 17th 1676. at 9 a Clock in the Morning the house Mett

Present as Yesterday:

Ordered th<sup>t</sup> for the more Expedicious retourne of the Examinacōn of Iohn Shankes to the seav<sup>n</sup> Interrogatories touching the Murder of the Susquehannough Jndians, M<sup>r</sup> Ressel is hereby Impowered to Presse Boate and hands and other Necessaries in order to the said Expeditōn.

Signed &c:

Ordered th<sup>t</sup> the peticōn of Eliz Delaroach be duely Considered by the Committee of both houses to [Sitt] upon Publick acco<sup>ts</sup> p. 6

Ordered th<sup>t</sup> the Hono<sup>ble</sup> Secretary do forthwith Issue a [Wr]itt of Supersedeas to Supersede the Capias ad Satisfac<sup>ie</sup>ndum Menconed in the Peticōn exhibited to this house [by] Roger Lawdemore.

Signed by Ord
Rich: Boughton Clk
of the Assembly.

[The] house is adjourned
[for] halfe an houre.

The house Mett

Low<sup>r</sup> house
May 17th
1676

Voted th<sup>t</sup> The Committee inspect all the Lawes of this Country for ffees due to any person whatsoever by Reason of their Office, and ascertaine all ffees of all Officers Whatsoever with-