

L. H.
Journal
original

Jf any Indian kill an Engli But lett it bee Charact ed by a black or Red 4^{ly} M^r Langw hy were deliuered killed by the English:

[One line missing]
5^{ly} yo^r hoggs & liue, & driue us from place to pl ther: Lett us know where to liue, & how to bee secured for the future from the hoggs & Cattle.

Heds of Chotiques Speeck.

1 Lett all idle fellowes th^t carry tales on both sides bee bownd & deliuered on both sides. Jf they cannot proue their Allegaōn, to bee punished.

2 As they treat the English freindly soe lett not the Indians bee beaten wthout cause, when they come amongst the English. And lett their priueledge of Hunting, ffishing, & Crabbing bee preserved.

3 They desyre to haue the Liberty to send us their Wifes & Children amongst us in case of danger. And that the English will furnish them wth armes & ammunion, & they will endeauour to defend both them & us against the Janedeas &c:
And further th^t the Gouverno^r will bee pleased to fix the place, p. 14 whither Wifes & Children to, in case of danger, and bring them.

that Kittamaquundt gaue to the English cattoway, & submitt to itt.

atowan's Speeck for gamaicks Sonne.

willed th^t his poeple should liue yred him to protect them utt them under any Jn- syre to haue their thinke fitt they de- Necutanamo to bee

[Two lines missing]

downe the fence made by the Indians att Nangemy about their Corne. By w^{ch} Eight men haue lost their whole Crop of Corne; for w^{ch} they complaine, & desyred to bee secured for the future.

Vnder w^{ch} Jt follows thus (viz^t,

Ordered that the heads of the Indians Speeck bee sent to the Lower howse. And th^t they bee desyred to bee ready for a Conference wth this howse by three of the Clock this afternoone. Against w^{ch} time they may digest into writing anything they haue to obiect against the perticulars desyred, or the p^rsons desyring, who will bee p^rsent att the Conference.
And doe further order, that the Greate Roome where the Court is kept, bee prepared agst three of the Clock for the Conference of both howses wth the Indians.

John Gittings Clr.