

may bee gyuen all misunderstan-

[One line missing]

& the English

[Two lines missing]

will take into their Consideraōn the death of th^t Indian, w^{ch} is killed, as is alleaged, Vppon hearing of the Indian Euidence, & other Circumstances relating thereto.

5 That wee are willing the Indians haue a place ascertain^d them where to liue. And th^t a mutuall care bee taken Concerning the securing of their Corne ffeilds.

To the second Vppon Cholique his speech.

1 They willingly consent to a freindly Compliance wth the Indians: That they haue their Priuiledge desyred.

2 They thinke the Leauing of their Wifes & Children wth the English, vppon their goeing to war agst their Enimies to bee uery reasonable. But as to th^t of Armes & Ammunition, they leaue to the Consideraōn of a Committee of both howses to consider thereof.

3 They should bee glad to understand that the Indians doe really owne the power gyuen to the English, in the Choyce of the Pascattoway Emperours.

To the Third. Vppon Jsapatowan's

p. 19

1 That his request Touching the the confirmaōn of that Indian me more than Reason.

2 That if Emerson haue done throwing downe their ffence as such mulct or penalty impo as the nature of the of

This howse ing haue drawne up th doe iudge it requisi read by M^r S Vpper howse,

The Committee into the Bills, (viz^t, An Act Concerning hogstealers & Concerning Coroners in each County, to this howse's Consideraōn

Was read An Act Concerning Hogstealers.

Ordered th^t that Act bee amended. That an Addition bee made for the Repealing those other Acts Concerning hogstealers. And another Addition allso, as touching Seruants who shall steale hoggs: And likewise a Clause for recouering the penalties in th^t Act by course of Law. As allso touching Accessaries & Abetto^{rs}

Was read An Act Concerning Outlawries once Read

An Act Concerning Coroners &c: once Read

Passed.

Was read the Petⁿ of Jacob Bremington Touching the killing of one seru^t by the Cinigo Indians, & another seru^t wounded.

It appearing th^t neither of those seruants was press^d, but

L. H.
Journal
original