7. That they vse their best endeavors to discharge the bargain w<sup>ch</sup> was made this yeare for m<sup>r</sup> Coplies house at S<sup>t</sup> maries by letting him have his house & land there againe & a reasonable considerāon allowed vnto him for m<sup>r</sup> Gilmetts time of being in it. w<sup>ch</sup> I would have discharged out of somewhat of mine there: And I desire that in case m<sup>r</sup> Copley will not be contented to lett the house to m<sup>r</sup> Gilmett till midsom<sup>r</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> shalbe anno dñi 1645 at some such reasonable rent as my said Commiss<sup>rs</sup> or any two of them (wherof the said m<sup>r</sup> G. B. to be one) shall think fitt; and that m<sup>r</sup> Gilmetts and his families diett cannot be provided & discharged out of my stock and ferme at west S<sup>t</sup> maries without any notable preiudice to the said stock, or out of some other profitts belonging to me there (both w<sup>ch</sup> I should be very gladd that my said Comm<sup>rs</sup> could effect for me, and I would willingly allow any reasonable rent to be paid out of my estate there to m<sup>r</sup> Copley for the said house for so long time, but not to be charged to pay any thing there for it) then I desire my said Comm<sup>rs</sup> in that case to take care that some other convenient place there be provided for m<sup>r</sup> Gilmetts, & m<sup>r</sup> Teeritts residence & diett there to their contentm<sup>t</sup> till the time above mentioned wth the best accommodation for them & least charge to me that may be. And I would have them so contrive this busines (if possibly they can) that m<sup>r</sup> Gilmett & m<sup>r</sup> Terrett may by all meanes be continued in that Province till that time: when I doubt not (by the grace of God) to be able to provide better for them then by reason of the extremity of the present troubles in England I could doe this yeare w<sup>ch</sup> I hope they will consider & have a litle patience till then, And this article I doe againe & againe recommend to my said Commiss<sup>rs</sup> care to give me satisfaction herein.

8. That these Instruccōns be read to all the said Commiss<sup>rs</sup> in due time & place to the end they may respectively take notice of them. Given vnder my hand at Bristoll 18. novem: 1643.
