

Savages with Armes &c and such like if in Case they should invade the other Colonies.

Colonial Papers. Vol. VI, No. 58.

5. The power of giveing Honors, Lands, Priviledges and other Franchises to such as shall take of him will be in short tyme an Occasion to dispeople the King's Colonie and to people his with persons of all sorts whatsoever different from the other Colonies in Religion Assertion or otherwise.

6. The Lord Baltimore's Claim of debarring Trade with the Natives is of that Consequence as will disable all Planters and discourage all Adventurers which right of Trade doth de mere Jure as to an Adventurer or Planter in his proper nature essentially beelonge.

7. Royall and Imperiall Power which is granted in all things of Sovraignty saveing only Allegiance to the Kings Majestie, to the Lord Baltimore to bee granted to any Person in ffee Simple in Places soe remote and where the Kings Subjects are soe neere Neighbours may prove very dangerous by exalting the One and decreasing the other, the Counsells reliefe and Actions of all the other Colonies beeing to depend on soe great distance as England from Virginia, the Lord Baltimore's Colonie haveinge power in themselves to manage their Affaires free from all dependancy on others.

8. The Power of putting Toll uppon the People in all Ports though it bee with their Consent is dangerous in Case of A Subject in soe great a Province.

Matter of Equity for the particular Persons of the old Company.

1. The Order of the Councell 8. Octob: 1623. A New Grant directed if &c. for the setling of all private Interests and all Lands and Franchises as before.

2. 20. Octob: 1623 the Order of the Councell soe much as concerneth the private Interest noe man shall have any prejudice.

3. The like out of King Jame's Commission 25. July 22 Jac.

4. A Proclamation 13. May 1^o Car. that notwithstanding the Loyall proceeding his Majestie's Intent not to impeach the particular Interest of a private Planter or Adventurer.

5. A Letter from the Lords of the Councell dat: 24 Octob: 1625 to those in Virginia whereby his Majesty's Intent is declared to preserve every man's particular right and the planters to enjoye their former priviledges with Addition.

The King's Commission to Captain Claybourne.

16. May 1631.

Colonial Papers. Vol. VIII, No. 32-1.

Charles by the grace of God Kinge of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the faith. Whereas our