

Liber A. extending it self from thence into the Middle of the Woods towards S<sup>t</sup> Maries Southward, and from thence Westward along the middle of the Woods betwixt Patomeck and Patuxent Rivers as farr as Matapania towards the Head of Patuxent River and from thence againe Eastward along the River side to the said Sasquehannah Point, into a County by the name of Charles County, and Robert Brookes Esq<sup>r</sup> to bee Commander thereof

Liber B.
p. 290

By the Lieuten<sup>t</sup> &c of Maryland.

p. 291

Whereas upon importunity of Several Inhabitants of this Province divers warrants have been of late by me Granted for the Imploying of Indians to kill deer with Gunns under Colour whereof as I am given to understand this County of S<sup>t</sup> Maries and the Ports adjoining are very much pestered with great Concourse of Indians of Several nations to the Annoyance and terror of divers of the Inhabitants here and Excessive wast and destruction of the Game of this Province and disperseing and Scattering of the Cattle and hoggs of the Inhabitants to their Great Prejudice and detriment upon Consideracōn whereof I have thought fit and doe hereby make voyd and null all warrants by me Granted at any time heretefore to any of the Inhabitants of this Province or Others for imploying of Indians to kill deer with Gunns whereof all and every the Said Inhabitants and others are hereby required to take Speciall notice and to Submitt in all things hereunto and to an Order of Assembly heretefore made and Still in force for the restraint thereof upon the penalty therein expressed, and to that purpose all and every the S<sup>d</sup> Inhabitants and others who have delivered any Gunns to any Indians for the purpose aforesaid are withall Convenient Speed after the Publicacōn hereof to take or Cause the Same to be taken from them as they will Answer the Contrary at their Perils, Given at S<sup>t</sup> Maries this 20th day of November Anno Dni 1650.

W<sup>m</sup> Stone

A Proclamacōn concerning his Lordps rents

By the Lieuten<sup>t</sup> &c of Maryland.

Whereas I am given to understand that the paym<sup>t</sup> of his Lorps Rents hath been heretefore by many very much neglected, which I look upon as a very great contempt ag<sup>t</sup> his Lordp and the Governm<sup>t</sup> here inhabited under him, These are therefore in the Lord Propriar̄ys name Strictly to charge and require all and every the Inhabitants of this County of S<sup>t</sup> Maries, understood to Comprehend all Plantacōns for which any Rent is as yet due in this his Lordps Province on this Side of