 p. 374 Inhabitants of kent who were the Materiall Cause of this Expedition by their Exhibiting a Peticōn to yo^r Self for Speedy reliefe, as is hinted in yo^r Order. I Shall if weakness of body prevent not give them a visit and advise with them, and readily assist them if occasion be offered with men or otherwise. Sir Let me Crave this favour not to be mistaken in what I have writt, It is far from me to Slight the power God hath placed over me, but am willing to Submitt to it, and that really as for my Self I am ready both now, and at any other time to do your Self and the Countrey all possible Service; But it is the present apprehension of the people That after the Ex-tremity of the winter be past, it will be farr more fitt for this Service. Sir I Shall waite yo^r pleasure
