

Liber H. H. respectively or the valeue thereof in such Comodities as His L^o or his heires or his or theyr Officer or Officers appointed from time to time to Collect & receaue the same shall accept in discharge thereof. And provided also that there be not aboue fifty pole of land layd out vpon any water side of euery fifty acres to be assigned as aforesaid & so proportionably for any greater quantity of land & the residue to be layd out within the land next adioyneing: w^{ch} proporcōn also his L^o wills & requires his said Lieu^t & Councell to cause to be observed in in surveying & setting forth all other lands claimed by any person or persons by vertue of any of his L^os Condi^cōns of plantacōn or any other Warrant or Order heeretofore or w^{ch} heereafter may be obtained from his L^o notwithstanding particular mention be not made thereof in any such Warrant or Order, for all w^{ch} this shall be his said Lieutenants Warrant.

3. His Lordship doth heereby Authorise & require his L^os brother Philip Calvert Esq^r his principall Secretary of the said Province of Maryland to administer in open Court there the Oath of his L^os Lieutenant of the said Province to Cap: Iosias Fendall his Lordships present Lieutenant there.

Given vnder his L^os hand & lesser seale at Armes the 12th of November 1656.

C: Baltmore

Order of the Councell of State

Wensday 17th December 1656.

P. R. O.
Domestic Interregnum.
Vol. 105,
p. 581

Upon reading a certificate from the Committee of Trade in pursuance of the Councell's order of 31. July last, whereby it was referred unto them, to consider of the petitions of Richard Bennet and Samuell Mathews, Agents for Virginia, and the rest plantations in the Bay of Chesapiake, with the Representation of the Governor, Councell and burgesses of the Grand assembly in Virginia, and a report from the Lord Com^r Whitlock and the Lord Com^r Widderington, upon the petition of Cecilius Lord Baltimore made to the Councell in pursuance of a reference from his Highness, Ordered that the sayd certificate, and that whole matter, be referred to the Committee of the Councell for foreigne plantations, who are to speake therein with the parties, and to report to the Councell, what they shall conceive fitt to be done upon the whole business; as also, to consider of what was now proposed, by the Lord Deputy and the Lord Deputy is added to the Committee.