Traders to Virginia, declaring that by reason of vast quantities of Tobacco planted in England & other places, as well as Virginia, that Comodity is brought to so low a price, as it hardly payes the duties to his Ma^{tie} and praying that the planting thereof may be inhibited within the Capes of Virginia after the 10th of June 1663 (& so yearly) till the pretended grievance be remedyed, by planting more staple comodities of Hemp, Flax, Pitch Potashes &c: and that no Shipp carrying any Tobacco shall come forth of the Capes of Virginia before the first day of May next ensueing. It was then ordered that the said Petition should be rejected & that their Lord^{sps} then declared that thenceforth they would receive no peticoⁿ of that nature; Upon review of which said order (at the instance of some of the aforesaid petitioners.) Their Lords^{sps} were pleased to declare that it was not their intention to forbid or discourage the Merchants and Planters of Virginia from making their addresses to them. And ordered that the Considerac^on of the whole matter should be resumed on Fryday the 20th of this instant June at three of the Clock in the afternoon, at which time as well the said planters, merchants & Traders for Virginia & all other persons therein concerned as also the Lord Baltymore, are required to give their attendance, when such direction shall be given as shall be thought fit
