October 17th John Lewger attorney for the Lord Proprietary in-Informaōn agst m^r Brent formeth to the Court against m^r Giles Brent gent that he having moved & propounded to the Leiut^t Grāll an enterprise vpon the Sesquihanoughs, the Leiuten^t Grāll together wth him the said Giles Brent did resolve and conclude vpon the meanes & manner of it, and among the rest that he the said Giles Brent should have a Commission to raise men at Kent & all other necessaries for the service, and with them pursue the enterprise, and that it should be done at the countries charge; all w^{ch} the said Giles Brent seemed to like & approve of, & accordingly vndertook the raising of the men vpon Kent, and the leading them out vpon the service, and to that purpose had & accepted a full and absolute Commission to that purpose & all this neverthelesse, & that he knew full well what great charge it would be to the country, & how importantly the honor & safety of the Province was concerned in the managing & successe of it, and what a notable opportunity was then presented for disadvantaging of the enemy, & disabling him to assault vs againe, not
