Came william vpton mariner and complained by word of mouth ags^t Captaine Thomas Cornwaleys, for that the said Tho: Cornwaleys did deliver one hogshhead of tobacco to the plf as good & merchantable, which afterward proved naught, & therefore desired that he might have satisfaction in other merchantable tobacco.

And the said Thomas Cornwaleys defended himselfe likewise by word of mouth & saith that he received the said hogshhead of tobacco of John medley as good & merchantable, and delivered it to the pff with this caution if you like it take; if not refuse it: & afterward this plf did accept of it, & therefore the deft conceived himselfe not bound to make it good.

And vpon the debating of the cause, Roger moy deposed that Rob^t Nicholls told him that the tobacco was wetted by John medley, and Rob^t nicholls deposed that the tobacco was never wetted to his knowledge, and that he never told Roger moy any such thing. And the Judge determined, that it was not wetted by the fault of John medley, & therefore that the plf received it at his owne perill; & should not recover ags^t the def^t
