Cecilius Lord Propriet^r &c. to all xtian people to whom these pñts shall come greeting whereas william Blissard late of the Ile of Kent planter, being weake in body but of pfct sense & memory did make his last & will and testament nuncupative in manner and forme following, that is to say being asked by Henry Crawley of the same Iland planter and at that time mate & copartner of the said william Blissard in all his personall estate, what course he did intend to take fr the directing of his estate, and who should have it in case God called him by death; the said william Blissard answered in these words, who should have it but you? (meaning the said Henry Crawley) and being againe demaunded whether he were in good remembrance of what he said, he answered againe, yes I praise God, and all that I have I give to you; meaning the said Henry Crawley; as is deposed both by the oath of the said Henry Crawley taken before the said Henry Crawley taken before the Secretary of o^r Province; and by the severall oathes of Richard Purlivant, and mathew Price of the same Iland planters taken in the said
