March 16. John Lewger on behalfe of his Lo^p sheweth that whereas Richard Ingle was obnoxious to divers suits & complaints of his Lo^p for divers & sundry crimes all w^{ch} vpon composition for the publique good & safety were suspended ags^t the said Richard assuming to leave in the country to the publique need at this time one barrell of powder & 400^l of shott; & whereas the said Richard is bound (by the law & custome of all Ports) to have discharge for his ship from his Lo^{ps} officer or Customer here ere he sett saile out of the Port to the end his Lo^{ps} customes may be taken or secured; and whereas the port of London is at this p^{nt} in actuall rebellion ags^t his ma^{ty} & seises all his customes in that port to the maintenance of such their rebellion whereby his ma^{ties} customes were here to be paid, or security to be given for the payment of them in some port of his ma^{ties}, nevertheles the said Rich.
Ingle knowing therof, is gone out of the province without satisfying the said composition, or paying or securing his Lo^{ps} customes, & afore & without any lawfull discharge of his ship, to the end his ma^{ties} customes might not be demanded of him, & is intended as is publiquely knowen to carry his ship into the Port of London to his ma^{ties} enemies & rebels; therefore prayeth that all the rights goods & debts of the said Richard within this Province may be sequestred into his Lo^{ps} hands, vntill the said Rich. shall purge himselfe of the said crimes.

the motion allowed by Leiu^t gräll.
