The Processe agst William Lewis, ffrancis Gray, Rob<sup>t</sup> Sedgrave &c.

p. 70

on Sunday the first of July, william Lewis informed Capt: Cornwaleys that certaine of his servants had drawn a petition to S<sup>r</sup> John Hervey; & intended at the Chappell that morning to procure all the Protestants hands to it. wherevpon the Captaine (calling vnto him m<sup>r</sup> Secretary) sent for Rob' Sedgrave (one of the parties informed of) and examined him thereof, who confessed he had drawn a writing & delivered it to ffrancis Gray, who being likewise examined, had the writing in his bosome & delivered it to the Captaine. The writing was of this tenor

Beloved in our Lord &c This is to give you notice of the abuses and scandalous reproaches w<sup>ch</sup> God and his ministers doe daily suffer by william Lewis of S<sup>t</sup> Inego's, who saith that our Ministers are the Ministers of the divell; and that our books are made by the instruments of the divell, and further saith that those servants w<sup>ch</sup> are vnder his charge shall keepe nor read any booke w<sup>ch</sup> doth apperteine to our religion within the house of the said william Lewis, to the great discomfort of those poore bondmen w<sup>ch</sup>
