The Dft made answe, th^t he had the s^d cattle, by order of Justice, th^t then was upon the Iland, & deteyneth them by uertue of th^t Justice.

The Plf replied, th^t those that pretended to haue authority att th^t time, to be Rebels, & had noe lawfull authority to keepe Courts, or exercise any other authority of Judicature: & soe consequently the s^d cattle to be wrongfully taken & deteyned from him.

And Jn^o Abbot replied, th^t he was forced to take M^r Brents cattle, for M^r Brents debt. And th^t this debt was M^r Brents debt; & therefore hee should haue of those cattle for his debt. And further this Dept sayth, th^t hee in his conscience uerily beleiueh the heifer now in dispute betweene Cap^t Brent & Cap^t Vaughan to be the proper goods of the s^d Cap^t Brent.

The Gou^r being sufficiently informed, th^t those th^t were then present upon the Iland, & th^t did hold Courts, & exercise acts of Judicature to be Rebels, & their iudgm^t to be utterly illegall & uniust agst the estate of Cap^t Giles Brent. & therefore passeth Judgm^t th^t the plf should haue the heifer deliuered him againe, wth her encrease, by the deft.
