

Liber Z. had acknowledged & affirmed that the survivor of them two
 p. 88 (meaning James Hitches & Thomas Hebden) should have all; (meaning the others estate) and that Thomas Hebden being in danger of sicknes had left all by will to James Hitches; and that since the said agreem^t he had heard the said James Hitches acknowledge that the survivor of them should have all. and he further testified that since the agreem^t mentioned, he heard the said Thomas Hebden tell the said James Hitches of a bargaine of the plantation w^{ch} he desired to make wth one Randoll Revell, to w^{ch} James Hitches dissented, & hereby the bargaine was stopped there was produced also on the pt of the def^t Rob^t Percy & sworne, who testified that he heard the said James Hitches since the said agreem^t complaine of the said Thomas Hebden touching some accompts betwixt them: to w^{ch} the depon^t answering, what need you trouble yo^rselfe so much in it, seing Thomas Hebden saith he is to have halfe of all you have, the said James replied, as it were making strange at it; well let him looke to himselfe if he play the knave wth me I can play the knave wth him. I can deale wth him as he deales wth mee. he further testified that some few dayes afore his death coming in to him after Tho. Hebden had beene wth him, the said James Hitches told the deponent that he had reckoned wth Tho.

 Hebden & that Tho. Hebden had franckly acknowledged 700^l w^t of tobacco; & that when he remembered him of some other things, he excused himselfe that he had forgott them, & that they amounted to vpwards of 900. weight. and that since he had remembered some other things himselfe w^{ch} would make it vp a thousand. & afterward at another time, he told the deponent that now he had made an end & that he had a note vnder his hand for 1000^l w^t and that at the making of his will this depon^t heard him tell the said Thomas Cornwaleys that there was 1000^l of tobacco due to him from Tho: Hebden, but he would have but 500 of him.
