p. 82 My Lord Bishop of London presents to the Committee a Memorial of abuses crept into the churches of the Plantations containing nine Articles which are all read as follows:—

1. That the Governor keep Parishes vacant and commission persons to officiate without orders.

Whereupon it is Ordered that this abuse be represented to the severall Governors of such Plantations as are under His Maj. immediate jurisdiction for redress

2. That the profits of vacant Parishes are converted by the people to their own use.

This is to be redressed by the Governors

3. That Ministers are hired for time

To bee likewise remedied

4. That the Ministers are ill paid

The Governors are in this particular to observe the Laws of England
