

P. R. O.
Colonial Papers.

32 January 1682.

S<sup>r</sup> I herewith send you the Tryalls of Cap<sup>t</sup> Josias Fendall, Cap<sup>t</sup> J<sup>no</sup> Coode and Lieut George Godfrey desireing that my Lord Privy Seale and the Secretary of State may have the privy seale of them. The apprehending those three persons gave the occation to my malicious enemies to report by letters from hence the last summer that I was violent against the Protestants here and that upon groundles jealousies and bare suspicions I had committed six or seaven Protestants: All which I hope upon these Tryalls will appeare to be malice against me and my Government. Had not these three persons been secured in time you would soon have heard of another Bacon and then possibly the wickedness of these fellows would have been charged to the Papists as desigening to cutt of the Protestants under which pretence these persons began to act: Time, the mother of Truth will (I hope) remove those impressions which my enemies have endeavoured to beget in the Lords of the Council to my prejudice and I am very confident your kindnes will never be wanting to
