

P. R. O. Colonial Papers. to consider of his proposalls and made him some other offers which he thought not good to yield to after w^{ch} we parted, and this is the same and Substance my (I may almost say) the very words that were Spoken on both sides But that it is the substance of what was (at that time I argued and Spoken by M^r Penn and me I will make oath when required and I doubt not but M^r Penn will owne as much when we meet at the Council board

This 31st May 1683.

C. Baltimore.

(Endorsed)

From My L^d Baltimore.

[Addressed] For My Esteemed friend M^r
W^m Blathwait one of the the Clerke of his Maties most Hon^{ble}
Privy Council.

These

by Chester

White Hall

[Indorsed] Rec^d 23rd Nov 83.

[Baltimore to Sir Lionel Jenkins]

12 June 1683-

S^r

Having given your formerly the trouble of many l^res I blush to be still guilty of the same Rudeness and humbly beg you'll please to pardon me for these few lines, w^{ch} address them selves to you for a favour w^{ch} I am assured you will not be unwilling to grant me. That w^{ch} I presume to beg at your hands is that you'll favour me so far that should M^r W^m Penn, (who is suddenly Bound for England as he hath lately assured me) move his Ma^{tie} for any further Order and Comands in relacōn to the Bounds of Maryland & Pensilvania that nothing be granted until I am heard at the Council Board, and that nothing be obtained by M^r Penn to the preiudice of my Interest on delaware River where M^r Penn pretends to hold a great part of my Province by Title (as he saith) from his Highness the Duke of York: In May or June next I will make my personal appearance, and make my defence w^{ch} I begg I may have granted me for the unsettled condicon of my Affaires here will not allow me to take a voyage this shipping in obtaining this favor for me you'l infinitely oblige

Most Hon^d S^r

Y^r faithfull humble
& most obedient
Serv^t

C Baltimore.