

Letter Bk. I. Currency of this Province, for which (tho a vast quantity of Bills were found in his possession) He escaped with a light punishment in comparison to what his Offence deserved: for want of such a Law as I have recommended He could be only punished by them as a Cheat; as the Crime was committed out of this Province (tho we must be much affected by such Offences) we could not take Cognizance at all of the fact of which he was accused.—By the Paragraph concerning the present manner of supporting the Poor I would recommend to them the building Work-houses in every County for the Reception of Vagrants & such as apply for Relief which would in good measure oblige them to labour for their maintenance & part of such Work

p. 48 house might be appropriated to the Reception of the County Invaldeeds & patients who would thereby receive the Benefit of the County Phisitian's Attendance & Care for which He has a valuable Consideration yearly but on account of His Patients being so much dispersed as they are at present can possibly do them very little Service.

The last Article hinted at in my Speech & the mention therein made of His Ldp I hope you will approve of which to know will afford the highest Satisfaction to

S<sup>r</sup> Y<sup>r</sup> &c.

P. S. Inclosed is a Duplicate of a Bill of Exchange for £125. sent in my last for your use & Disposal. Your nomination of M<sup>r</sup> Dulany's youngest Son I am well satisfied with, but as I apprehend that on my presenting him to that Clerkship in case of a Vacancy a Present will be offered as has been usual to M<sup>r</sup> Jenings I wait your Commands for my Behaviour on such Occasion.

Original.

[Calvert to Sharpe.]

London Garraway's May 11th 1754.

Dear Sir

M<sup>r</sup> Bacon informing me this morning of his ships sailing a Monday I've have but just time to Notice to you that My Lord has rec<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Calvert's Letters of Advice of the Death of M<sup>r</sup> Young & your having thereupon offered him to be Iudge of the Land office in conjunction with M<sup>r</sup> Stuart. His puncto of Honour, warmth & difficulties he seem's to laye under in regard to his own pecuniary Intrest w<sup>h</sup> has Caused him to an Ill-behaviour on your kind & good offered friendship to him has not a little Netled his Lordh<sup>p</sup> resentment ag<sup>t</sup> him; however he has postponed his Determination thereon till hears in relation thereto from you.

M<sup>r</sup> Tasker has write me a Letter informing me to M<sup>r</sup> Dulany