

doth these words Oblige the Magistrates &^t to Serve beyond the Intent of the last Law the Clause ending in Such Methods and Proportions as by this Act is Limited and Provided—

U. H. Journal
1659-98

2 If the Proprietary or his Lieu^t and Council have not Power by this Act to pay the Pensions of Widows and Orphans of the Slain Souldiers, by the words of the old Act, they cannot pay one Single Widdow even out of the 50000^l of Tobacco they are Impowered to Levy yearly, but must call an Assembly to do it, or permitt her to Starve till an Assembly can be called.—

So as above this house are willing to pass the Act, and if the Lower house think fitt they may Proceed to Ingrossing the Bill—

Signed p^r Order p^r J LLewellin Clk of Assembly—

The Act for Preventing Vexatious and unnecessary Suite at Law read in this house and passed in Manner following Viz^t Upper house have Assented

J LLewellin Cl of Assembly—

Sent to the Lower house by Coll: Tailer who having Delivered the same—

The house Adjourns till to Morrow Nine a Clock—

Septem^r the 14th 1681 Upper house Mett—

Present

The honourable { The Chancellor }
 { The Sur Gen^l } Coll: Coursey }
 { Coll: Tailer } Coll: Stevens }

A Petition of the Inhabitants of Kent County to have their former Priviledges of Keeping Courts Electing Delegates &^t with an Addition of Easter Neck at Wickliffe to be made thereunto read and thus Endorsed—

Upper house September the 14th 1681

The Consideration of this Petition is humbly referred to his Lordship in whose Sole power the same lyeth—

Signed p^r Order p^r I LLewellin Clk of Assembly

A Petition preferred by Iacob Johnson of S^t Maries County having Married the Widdow of Hance Jordaine who was killed at the Fort leaving his Wife big with Child in a Miserable Poor Condition who soon after was Delivered of two Children the one whereof Dyed the other still living, Hance Jordaine Died in Debt which the Petitioner hath paid and hath ever Since Maintained the other Orphan by his own hard Labour, and prays Consideration for what is Past & for the