The foregoing Message relating to the Tryall of Writts of Error this house sent to the Lower house p<sup>r</sup> Captain Digges—

A Message from the Lower house p<sup>r</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Hill & M<sup>r</sup> Robotham they return his Lordships thanks for his favour in a Message Sent them by Coll Lowe that the Errors Depending should not come to Tryall this Assembly also the Message in Writeing as Viz<sup>t</sup>

Lower house of Assembly November the 5th 1681—

p. 362 This house having taken into Consideration the Message Sent them this Day by the Honourable the Secretary concerning Appeales, and having Considered that Severall Acts in Severall Assemblies have been heretofore made to Regulate & Settle the Same all which as it appears by the said Message having proved ineffectuall though done with the greatest Deliberation and Circumspection, Do conceive that the Entering upon the said Affair and Effecting thereof will take up more time then can well Consist with the Dispatch desired by his Lordship, therefore this house Do humbly desire that the Upper house will be Pleased either to Draw up Such a Law as their Honours shall think Sufficent to redress the said Grievance or referr the Same to Some future Sessions of Assembly

Signed p<sup>r</sup> Order C Boteler Cl Ass<sup>t</sup> of the Lower house of Assembly

Information being given to this house that the Law for the Two shillings per hh<sup>d</sup> and other not Temporary Laws being by his Lordship before he went for England included in the Act for Ascertainig what were Laws within this Province, the said Act last Mentioned being brought afterwards into an Act for Revivall Anno 1678: were made Temporary Laws and since not revived, Ordered that the Clerk of this house make inspection thereinto and render an Account thereof to this house, and to that purpose the Secretary is Ordered to Deliver
