

informed that the Common Discourse of the Committee that were sett out for Inspecting the Laws the Last Meeting and others Members of the Lower house that there were Noe perpetuall Laws within this Province but all become Temporary, and that by meanes of a Law made 1678 for reviving and Confirming certaine Laws &c: & again revived the last Meeting &^a and accordingly reads to them the Several Acts Mentioned in the said reviving Act, he Desires the Lower House for the Quieting the Minds of the People and for a Rule of Justice to Join with this house in a Declaration that in the said last Mentioned reviving Act the particular parts thereof may be particularly Applied Viz^t The Confirming part to the Confirming of the Act the reviving part to the reviving part &^t

U. H. Journal
1659-98

p. 364

The Speaker Declares Neither himself nor any of the house empowered to Answer neither indeed could unless they had the Propositions of this house Transmitted to them in Writing

The Chancellor moves again to have a List of those Laws which were ascertained Anno 1676 to be perpetuall Laws and to be Declared now by both Houses to be perpetuall Laws

They return to their own house

And the Clerk of this house is Ordered to draw out a List of the Laws that were revived

And the house Adjourns again to the Council Chamber

Where they meet and Adjourn till to Morrow Morning

Novem^r the 8th 1681 Upper house mett

The Right Honourable the Lord Baltimore

The Honourable { Philip Calvert Esq^r Chanc^r } Coll: Henry Darnall }
 { William Calvert Esq^r Secretary } Coll William Stevens }
 { Coll: Vincent Lowe } Cap^t William Digges }

A Message from the Lower house per Cap^t Brandt and Captain Trippe being an Act against Ingrossers and Regraters thus Subscribed—

November the 8th 1681 the Lower house have Assented
C Boteler Cl Assistant of the Lower house of Assembly

Read and Voted a Second reading

Read again and passed this house in these Words Viz^t

November the 8th 1681 Upper house have Assented
J LLeuellin Clk of Assembly

Sent to the Lower house p^r Coll Tailler, Coll: Lowe and Coll: Darnall who have also with them a List of all the Tem-