

under their Consideration (that is to say) One directing the Manner of Exceting and Summoning of Burgesses &c: the other touching the Levying of Warr &t

U. H. Journal
1659-98

To the first this house do say, That the Bill by them sent though very Little Differing is more Convenient for the Inhabitants of this Province, as this house think they can Demonstrate

For the second Bill the same matter is provided for by Laws already made which to Enact a new seems to Interfere with that Act which Impowers the Governour and Council to make Warr or Peace with any Indian Enimys Beyond the Bounds of this Province as also to discharge the Inhabitants of this Province from any Supply or Maintenance in relation to the same Therefore this house cannot (without any further Consideration of both houses) Concurr with the Lower house in relation to those two Bills—

Signed p^r Order Tho^s Grunwin Cl of Assembly

The Messengers return having Delivered their Message

M^r Carvile and Cap^t Osborne from the Lower house with the last Message Sent from this house, and desire to know where that Law is for Impowering his Lordship and Council to make Warr or Peace with any Indian Enimys beyond the Bounds of this Province, acknowledging there was such a Law but that the same is repealed The said Messengers go out, M^r Carvile returns and desires Coll Stevens Book of Laws Coll Stevens told him he could not Spare it at present but on Monday Morning he should have it—he goes out—
