

[Indian En]imy beyond the bounds of this province this house
Conceives is Repealed L. H. Journal
Original.

They Returne and say the vpp<sup>r</sup> house Affirme, th<sup>t</sup> the sayd Act is not repealed [be]cause that by An Act made 1681: that Act w<sup>ch</sup> repeales the sd Act Impowring the Governour and Councill, to make peace or warr etc: Stands repealed, besides th<sup>t</sup> his Lōpp Disassented to the Act for repealing the Act Afforesd

Affter a serious Debate Concerning the same Ordered that M<sup>r</sup> Robert Carvile M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Burford & M<sup>r</sup> John Rousby Draw vp a message in Answere to the last message in writing from the vpp<sup>r</sup> house by Munday Morning:

The House Adjourne Till Munday Morning 8 a Clocke

Munday October the 29th 1683

p. 51

The house Called all p<sup>r</sup>sent as on Satterday

Then was read what was done on Satterday:

Then Came M<sup>r</sup> Secry Darnall p<sup>r</sup> house and Acquints this house, That his Lordsp: Desi<sup>r</sup> and him in the vpp<sup>r</sup> house presently:

by this house that                      Answere to Any proposal be made to this                      ove any matter to his Lōpp as seem meet

house Adjourne into the vpper house

made a speeh Complayning of the delays of this house in      ll for Advancement of Trade; w<sup>ch</sup> his Lordsp sayes hee is Confident will produce soe great a good to the Inhabitants of this pvince and beleives the Lower house are of the same Opinion. Therefore Ernestly Desires the Lower house, to putt the sayd bill to A vote for its passage in the Lower house, which is the Cheife Thing, that Can render the Conclusion of this Sessions soe happy as by his Lōpp and both house is desired, And vpon which Termes Onely his Lordsp is Content to putt off the day of sessions: (w<sup>ch</sup> Otherwise His Lordsp Intended should be this Day :) For the settleing some mayne poynts in the Lawes, w<sup>ch</sup> it is necessary should be done this meeting:

His Lōp further sayes He will send a Coppy of his Speech to the Lower house, As soone as it is Entered vpon the Journall of the vpp<sup>r</sup> house If the Lower House desire it

proposall
by m<sup>r</sup> Speaker
about the bill
for Advancem<sup>t</sup>
of Trade
Then this house returne to their Owne house, And after Debate Concerning the bill for Advancement of Trade, M<sup>r</sup> Speaker moved the house whether the sayd bill should be putt to the question for its passage in this house, Or that a message should bee Drawne to signify the true Intent and meaning in this h