

They returne and say they have delivered the same

L. H. Journal
Original.

Major Truman brings from the vpp^r house An Acco^t of the prysone fees of Jacob young: wth his peticcōn, and Indeorsment therevpon which is as ffol (viz^t)

Upp^r house 1st of November 1683

Jacob Young's
pet This house hath read the peticcōn of Jacob young, And the Acco^t of the Sherr therevnto Annexed for his fees And soe send the same to the Low^r house ffor Their Consideraccōn

Signd p Ord^r Tho: Grunwin Clk &c

Then was Read the peticcōn of the Orphanes of Henry Lewis of Ann Arrundell County deceased, and therevpon voted the ffollowing Message

Lower house of Assembly November the first 1683

pet. of the Orphanes of Henry Lewis being p^rsented and read in this house, And a member of this house Affirming to this house that the sayd Orphanes are Extreamply Injured, by the fraud of their sayd ffather in law, This house doe desire, the upp^r house, to take the sd peticcōn into their serious Consideraccōn, and give Direccōn to the Judges in Testamentary Causes, to doe ther[ein what] by the Lawes and presidents of this province can be done, f[or relief] of the petioners, and for securing what little remaines of [their Estate] wthin this province: p. 58

[Signed p] Ord^r C Boteler Cler

The peticcōn and message sent to the vpp^r house by M^r ffrizby dsone

They returne and say they have delivered the

Then was read the peticcōn and Acco^t of fees Due from Ja Imprisonement, And referred till the Affternoone:

Coll Stevens Comes with a message from the vpp^r house which being reade is as foll:

Upp^r house 31th October 1683:

Answers to a message of the 24th Instant about places To hould Assemblies Courts and Offices at This house received message from the Lower house of the 24th Instant wherein the Lower house Express their Thankfullness to his Lōp for his great Love and Affeccōn Towards the good people of this province, Exprest in his speech at the Opening this Assembly, And more particularly in Conveening this Assembly and Appoynting his Lops provinciall Court, to be held in this place soe neer the Center of this province And therein the Lower house did pay his Lōpp, to