

P. R. O. assure you and them safe conduct protection and security for Colonial you and their persons and Attendance.
Papers.

4<sup>thly</sup> And that we will protect you and them in the free and full enjoyment of yours & theirs just rights and priviledges equall with the rest of their Majesties Subjects according to the Laws of England and this Province.

5<sup>thly</sup> These are our absolute Resolutions, Concessions and Demands to which we desire your imediate compliance being utterly resolved against any personal treaty about the promises. Given under our hand this first day of Aug<sup>t</sup> 1689.

John Coode
Henry Jowles
Kenelm Chizeldine
John Kurling
John Cambell.
Ninian Bell
Humphrey Warren.

Their Answer.

Gent<sup>l<sup>m</sup></sup>

Wee doe accept of your Articles now sent and accordingly are ready to surrender the Garrisons. Dated the 1st August 1689.

Deputy Governors then present.	{	W <sup>m</sup> Joseph.
		Henry Darnell
		Nicholas Sewell
		Edward Pye
		Clement Hill.

Vera Copia.
Articles of Surrender.

To the high and mighty the most illustrious
Prince Will<sup>m</sup> & Mary by the Grace of God of England, Scotland, France and Ireland
King & Queen Defender of the Faith etc.

The humble Address of your Maj<sup>ty<sup>s</sup></sup>
most loyal Protestant Subjects
Inhabitants of the Province of Maryland.

Dread Sover<sup>s</sup>

As (according to our bounden duty, and the Example of the rest of our fellow Subjects in other parts of your Dominion) wee desire most humbly and heartily to congratulate the happy success of your Majesties arms taken up in the defence and restitution not only of the Protestant Religion in general, but also in particular of the ancient Laws, liberties, and priviledges