

P. R. O. And in case the Indians and English meete accidentally in the Maryland Woods, every Indian shall be bound immediately to throw
 B. I. Vol. 2, down his Arms upon call, and in case an Indian so meeting an
 B. G. Englishman shall refuse to throw down his Arms upon call he shall be deemed as an enemy.

4^{thly} The Priviledge of Crabbing, Fowling, Hunting and Fishing shall be preserved to the Indians inviolably.

5^{thly} That every Indian that killeth or stealeth a Hogg, Calfe or other Beast or any other Goods shall undergoe the same punishment an Englishman doth for the like offence.

6^{thly} In case any servants or slaves run away from their Masters and come to any of the Indian Towns within the Territoryes of the said Thom Calvert and his subjects they shall be bound to apprehend the said fugitives and bring them to the next English Plantation to be conveyed to their Masters, and in case any Indian aforesaid shall convey or assist any such fugitives in their flight out of this Province that he shall make the respective Master or Mistress of such servants or slaves such satisfaction as an Englishman ought to do in the like case.

7^{thly} That the said King shall not make any new Peace with our Enemys nor shall make any Warr without the consent of the Governor of this Province for the tyme being.

8^{thly} In case the said Tom Calvert or any Indian subject to him shall kill any Indians or any other in Peace and Amity with their said Majesties, it shall be deemed as great an offence as killing an Englishman.

9^{thly} That neither the said King nor any of the Indians under his subjection do at any tyme hereafter keep harbour or entertain amongst them or within their Fort any forrein or strange Indians or know or discover any such to appear or come into this Province without giveing tymely and all possibly speedy notice thereof to his Excellency the Governor or some Magistrate or other Officer or person of Noate by whom the same may be communicated with all expedition to the said Gover^r or Governor of this Province for the tyme being for his advice and direction therein

10^{thly} That as a further Testimony of their League Peace and Friendshipp with their Majesties and as they expect protection from them & their Government here, there be yearly paid by the said King as a Tribute to their said Majesties an Indian Bow and two Arrows to be delivered to his Excellency the Governor or to the Governor for the tyme being at his residence wheresoever the same shall happen to be on the first Tuesday in April in every year successively.

11^{thly} It is required and the said King for himselfe and the Indians under him doth covenant to make such Restoration