

such Persons tend to none but such as are to their Advantage. The change of Inst<sup>ns</sup> happen'd not as I conceive from M<sup>r</sup> Dulany, I know not he has seen him, his Lord<sup>p</sup> told me he had call'd on him But not seen him, he made me a Visit with two youths stay'd not long, no material discourse happened; few days after I was with him, Doctor Fothergill his Physician was there, advis'd him for Bath, he seem'd much out of order, told me he had a Large Packet from you to me w<sup>h</sup> as soon as he got from Ship Board he would send, spoke kindly and said his non-attendance at runing the Lines proceeded from want of Health, trifling discourse followed; I entered upon nothing material, resting till I had seen his Lord<sup>p</sup> and your Packet, which a few days after he sent; upon perusing, I carried Both the Journals of the Houses &c<sup>a</sup> to his Lord<sup>p</sup> and upon Explanatory with him thereon, he desired I would invite M<sup>r</sup> Dulany to dine with him this was of a Saturday, Accordingly a Monday I intended waiting on him But being ill prevented me, M<sup>r</sup> Macnamara coming in said he should see M<sup>r</sup> Dulany that afternoon, I desired my Comp<sup>ts</sup> to him and that I would wait on him the next Morning, Accordingly I went, on approach to his Lodgings in Fenchurch street I met M<sup>r</sup> Anderson's son, who told me M<sup>r</sup> Dulany was that morning gone to Bath, and steping to M<sup>r</sup> Anderson he said the same and said, he told him he wo<sup>d</sup> call upon my Lord that morning in his way, that he Believed him Sker'd by his Physician and with fancy of a gathering in his side, he Lives on thinn Broth; on my return, I meet M<sup>r</sup> Macnamara who was surpris'd at his departure and said he seem'd well and pleas'd at my Intention of waiting on him, and that he would defer his departure to Bath till the day after; I have heard he has spoke with good-will of you. I've rec<sup>d</sup> a Let<sup>r</sup> from your Brother William at Cheltenham Waters, concerning you and him and of the Political Views in Maryland 'tis a copious Let<sup>r</sup> I have sent it to my Lord, the reason of my being so explicit is to give you all satisfaction, and shall further upon y<sup>r</sup> Brothers return when all matter and things shall be layed before them for his Lord<sup>ps</sup> mature Judgement; You may depend he is steady to you and will defend you and be assured the same from me, and that I will confront all Injury ag<sup>t</sup> you, and compare your rectitude in the due execution of all things against the malevolence and Deceit and their ingratitude to you. Y<sup>rs</sup> the 12th of Aug<sup>t</sup> is rec<sup>d</sup> the Theodolite by this opportunity sent has Tripod Legs and will serve the Telescope. The Subscription for the Publication of the Province Laws by the Rev<sup>d</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Bacon and delivered me amounts to £1100 Currency with addition of his Lord<sup>ps</sup> £200 Sterling and my £50 sterl<sup>g</sup> which I pray you to pay by deduction to me, in all will be a good consideration