

And this depon^t therevpon advised the said Leiv^t Lewis not to meddle with the carrying of them thence. And this depon^t doth not certainly knowe but saith it is very pbable the said L^t Lewis did (not long after) carry away with him the said Greenestead and Meredith from thence to Portoback, for that about a fortnight after hee sawe them at L^t Lewis his House there. But this depon^t saith the said Greenestead and Meredith went from the said L^t Lewis his House at Portoback vpon Whitson Tuesday (as hee remembers) and that hee never sawe them there since, neither doth hee knowe where they were at any time since, but hath heard they were gone to Virginia And further hee cannot materially depose
