

Liber B. was lost, I the Said Little asking her for them did Answer
 No. 3. that nobody was there but William Turners wife, and George Busseys wife, and Swore an Oath that one of them two must have them

Bassill Little

M^{rs} Dorrington affirmeth the Same and more that the Said Iolley Should Swear Gooddy Turner was a Thiefe Signum M^{rs} A Dorrington

Mary Damaell affirmeth the Same Signum Mary M Damaell

George Bussey Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith, That there was a bargaine betwixt Thomas Seamer and Edward Keen, That Edward Keen Sold Thomas Seamer all he was possessed of, onely his wearing Cloaths Excepted and further Saith not

Signum George × Bussey

James Iolley affirmeth the Same Signum
 James I Iolley

Clement Hinton Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith That David Farrea promised to m^r Ewens 2 pence a pound really for any Goods he Should receive Clement Hinton

p. 238 Edw^d Good Sworn & Examined in open Court Saith th^t In^o Crabtree promised Goodman Bassey Satisfacōn for his dyet in th^e time of his Sickness w^{ch} was 11 weeks & q^r of a hog th^t In^o Crabtree had of mich^l Bassey & a Cannoe th^t In^o Crabtree had of the S^d Bassey & further Saith not

Sign Edw^d O Good

Clem^t Hinton Sworn & Examined in open Co^rt Saith th^t
 David ffarrea hired of m^r Henry Hooper th^e Store th^t was m^r Iordans wthout mencōning any more and further Saith not,
 Clem^t Hinton

Edward Good Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith that Thomas Seamer Should Say that Iohn Tennis was a Thiefe and a hogstealer and further Saith not

Signum Edward ∩ Good

Timothy Gunton Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith that m^r Iohn Potts was to give William Brammaell 7 barrells of Corne a Share for 4 Shares, and the Said m^r Potts