

Liber B.
No. 3. Robert Tayler Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith, that Cap^t Iohnson Caused a brown Steer with a Mealy Nose Broad head to be killed in the depon^{ts} penn, which Steare to the Deponents best remembrance and knowledge was 3 years old or upwards, The Steare to the Deponents best remembrance was Crompt on the left Eare, the other Eare hole only a Nike or two Slitt in, which Stear the Depon^t meeting in his penn inquired of Cornelius whose Steare it was, Cornelius Replied to the Deponent, answering it was his, and desired it
p. 247 might Goe in his Penn The next that laid Claime to this Steare was Cap^t Iohnson who Sent his men to kill it, and farther the Deponent Saith not.

Signum

Robert RT Tayler

John Dammarcell Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith, That the last october was a twelvemonth at a Provinciall Court Cap^t Iohnson desired the Said depon^t to kill a Steare for him, and that James Wilson and Iohn Boone went with the Deponent, and Shewed him a broad horn'd Steare of a Brown Collour with a Mealy Nose about the age of 3 years or 4 and farther Saith not,

John Dammerell

William Howse Sworne and Examined in open Court Saith that he the Said Depon^t heard Iohn Little Call his Servant Billsberry upon the Sabbath day, and likewise heard a Noise of Beating at the Morter, And farther Saith not.

Signum

William WH Howse

Stephen Harloe Sworne and Examined Saith that about two yeares agoe this Deponent being at the house of Iohn Little, on a Sabbath day in the Morning did hear the Said Little Call up his Man Henry Billsberry to beat and also to Bake on the Sabbath day and, farther Saith not

Signum

Stephen S Harloe

Richard Garford Sworne and Examined Saith that first he was Employed by Iohn Little to fetch home his Servant Bills-berry, and his Indian from the Indian Cabbin, and they would not Come Saying they they had rather live with the Pagans than Come home to be Starved for want of food, Cloathing and have their Brains beaten out, farthermore the Deponent Saith that the Said Little did Imploy two Indians to fetch home his Man Henry and they brought him home, Then the Said Little Called for divers to bind him, and So was determined to keep him Bound till the Court as the Said Little did Ex-