To the Provincial Convention.

The humble Petition of John Baillie sheweth, That he now lyes under the influence and suffers the Extremity of a heavy though just sentance of the Committee of Charles County, for having willfully though in some degree ignorantly broke the Association of the Honourable Continental Congress.

Your Petitioner is truly sencible that the sentance passed by the Committee is founded in justice, but executed with such rigour, it has been with the most extreme and hazardous difficulty he could obtain the necessary food to support a life rendered miserable by his conduct, and the above mentioned sentence.

Your Petitioner begs leave to inform this respectable Convention that no one views his conduct in a more odious light than himself, and should you be pleased to forgive your Petitioner his past transgression and place him in his former state, with respect to the People and Laws of this Province, he most solemnly promises to adhere strictly for the future to the Continental Association, and to do every thing in his power which can any way, or in any manner forward the interest of this Country.

Your Petitioner therefor most humbly prays that you will take his case into consideration, and that you will be pleased in your goodness to forgive his past crime, which he will endeavour to atone for, as far as he can, by his future conduct, and your Petitioner as is duty bound will ever pray.
