Gentlemen. The three hundred pounds received by Lieutenant Adams being nearly expended in providing necessaries for Cap<sup>t</sup> Rezin Bealls Company now in Port Tobacco, and the committee for this County not meeting till this day week; I take the opportunity by Lieutenant John Halkerston to draw on you for one hundred and fifty pounds Currency for the purpose of paying for further provisions for said company: The commissary not having as yet prepared for their support, and no certainty as to what time he will be in readiness for that purpose. On Saturday next, one weeks board for the soldiers will be due, which amounts to upwards of Fifty pounds, and I have only Twenty six pounds some odd shillings this day in hand of the former sum, out of which there is rent likewise due for a House hired as a Barrack for said men: for which reasons I hope your Honours will not fail sending the sum now wrote for. I am doubtful that any considerable number of Blankets cannot be got in this County: (Hitherto only eight Blankets have been collected, and those delivered to Cap<sup>t</sup> Beall for the use of his men, who are still in want of more) notwithstanding proper persons have been appointed by the Committee in every district of the County for the purpose of Collecting them:

I am Sirs your most hble Serv<sup>t</sup>

£150.. 0.. 0 Joseph Turner Treasurer for Charles County
