[Smyth to Council.]

Ship Yard July the 12th 1776.

Gentlemen

This will be handed you by my son Thomas who waites on the Council for his Commission in pursuance of the Honoble the Conventions order to him for enlisting a Company of militia, he has enlisted a Company of stout able young Fellows and almost all of them Country born; he informs me that they have very few muskets among them which are fit for Service, and I believe it will be very difficult to borrow any from the Inhabitants as they dont know how soon they may be called on to use them. What guns belong to the Militia are generally very indifferent, permit me therefore to solicit your honorable Board that his Company and Capt. Perkins's may be armed out of the Arms that will be made by Winters, and those which are sent for to Chingoteague

I hope they will be indulged with having their Companies well armed as they have been industrious enough to enroll
