Sir. I took the liberty to write a few days ago, to acquaint the Honbˡᵉ Council of Safety, that I had a vessell of 700 barrells burthen at their service, if they wanted to purchase. I find that she will carry about 800 barrels, is in want of some repairs. Am applied to by some people, in this Town for her, with whom I cannot treat till I know your determination. Please favour me with an answer ᵽ the bearer, Mʳ Melcher Keener.

and will much oblige your most Obedᵗ Humbˡ Servᵗ   James Clarke.

To Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer Esq. ⎰
Annapolis   ⎱

P. S. I believe this vessell of mine is a very fast sailor. Her lowest price as she lies is £450. Should you take her I wou'd be very thankfull to be employ'd to command her.
