[J. Tilghman to Council.]

Col<sup>o</sup> Tilghman's Nov. 19th 1776.

Gentlemen.

Your favor of the 14th Inst. notifying my re-appointment and desiring that I would join the Board as soon as possible, I received only this morning, had it reached me sooner I should have taken the earliest opportunity of answering it to obviate any inconveniences which might arise from the want of your full complement of members.

The repeated Honors I have experienced from the Convention merit my warmest acknowledgements and afford agreeable Testimonials of their approbation of my conduct as a member
