No. 53.

Sir. We received yours of the 9th instant; are sorry we have it not in our power to supply the people with that necessary article Salt, but are in hopes they may shortly supply themselves, as vessels are daily arriving at Baltimore with that article.

We are offered Beef upon much more reasonable Terms than 4 d. p lb, therefore would not have you contract for any further quantity, unless you can purchase at thirty Shillings p hundred.

As we are not acquainted with the people of your Town, shall be obliged if you will procure some proper person to receive the arms and accoutrements from the soldiers of the Flying Camp, any reasonable charge for his trouble shall be paid. We have sent you by M^r Winters the sum of three hundred pounds, with the two hundred and fifty before sent, is to be laid out in the purchase of provisions. upon rendering your Acc^t whatever Balance appears to be due to you shall be paid
