

P. R. O. from time to time and at all times hereafter as occasion shall require all matters of import conducing any way to their Majesties Service and the good and welfare of their subjects here, also by suppressing seizing and securing all such suspicious and suspected persons as already are or shall at any time hereafter flye or go from here into your Government, without good & sufficient lycense from some Magistrate or other person or persons thereunto lawfully authorized and appointed within this Province; or other good, pregnant & undeniable circumstances otherwise clearing them; and in all things whatsoever to bear us your hearty affections love and good will in all the waies of Friendshipp and a mutuall good correspondency; all which we shall with all due care imaginable labour to preserve & keepe inviolate on our parts towards you, omitting nothing that may appear serviceable or anywaies conducing to your interest, peace & welfare. Whereunto we desire all faith & credence may be given.

Idem to Pensylvania, New York and New England.

To the right hon<sup>ble</sup> the Deputy
Gov<sup>r</sup> or President of their Majesties Colony of Virginia & the rest of the hon<sup>ble</sup> their Majestie's Council of State there.
These

(Endorsed)

Maryland,

28. August 1689.

Letter from the Assembly to the Adjacent Colonies.

Rec<sup>d</sup> from Lord Baltemore 31. Dec<sup>r</sup> 1689.

[Order concerning Jacob Young and the Indians.]

By the Assembly, Aug<sup>t</sup> 28th 1689.

Forasmuch as severall Overtures have been made by some of our late greate Officers and others popishly affected within this Province to the Northern Indians and others for the ruin & destruction of their Majesties Protestant Subjects here, (as we have credibly been informed) to the greate terror, amazement and consternation of the Inhabitants of this Province: And whereof Jacob Young formerly employed by this Province in affaires of this nature, as well knowne and skilled in the language and customes of the said Indians) hath been deemed by this House a person most fitt and capable to