

U. H. J. Lordship to avoid the Contentions that happened about the Property having no Mark to distinguish the same the said Law being for the Good and Benefit of the Province, and all the Title his Lordship can pretend to such Unmarked Cattle,
 p. 643 We humbly Conceive the same to be now by that Law Invested in their Majesties, as also to appoint Rangers to take up the same in which also we Submitt to their Majestys Pleasure.

5thly. As to the Demand of all Bills, Bonds, Records and other writings to his Lordships Land belonging, this house say that all Bonds & Bills given for Warrants to take up Land, where the parties have taken up Land thereupon ought to be Delivered up to his Lordship but where they have Executed the said Warrants & returned a Certificate of the Same, they ought not to be Delivered till the Parties receive the Benefit of the Same and as to the Records relating to Land taken up under his Lordship they say that they conceive their Majestys Subjects title to such Lands and are the only Evidence for the same, and ought not to be Entrusted or be in the Custody of any but his Majesties Secretary thereunto Commissionated and Lodged in his Office to which his Lordships Officers and all his Majesties Subjects have free Access
