

but they are alsoe of Oppinion, that it ought to take place from the begining of the Revolution which was In the Month of August Anno Dom. 1689

Original
Journal.

Signed p ord^r
John LLewellin Clk.

An Act touching Indians, read & passed the house the first reading.

An Act for the more Speedy Bringing to Tryall & Suppressing Criminalls & Limitting theire punishments for certaine Offences when psecuted in the County Courts, read & passed the house the first reading.

An Act ag^t Hoggstealers & marking of Hoggs, read & passed the house the first reading.

An Act for Limitation of Certaine Actions for avoideing Suites att Law read & passed the house the first reading.

The said Acts were sent to the Gou^rno^r & Councill by m^r Tasker & M^r Hamond.

M^r Mason & Maj^r Smallwood returne & say they deliuered the Message sent by them.

Coll Robotham & M^r Brookes come from the Gouverno^r & Councill & Acquaint this house that severall Acts sent them, had been read & passed that board, & with all desire them when they are returned hither they may receiue Two Readings more & soe be remitted back to that board again for a finall approbation & passing.

Maj^r Sewall makes his Appearance of this house, and does informe Bookes of Entries of Shipping

An Act for Restrain[ing the unreasonable increase of horses]. to the vote whether the Negatiue.

The Comittee of in a full house.

An Act for takeing ag^t the Act of Limitation reading.

Ordered by the house be Printed and that one & recorded.

Coll Browne & Cap^t Cour Act yesterday sent that

An Act of Recogn[ition] of [their Majestys right and title in this] Province of Maryland read & passed reading

An Act prohibiting fforraigne [Engrossers] passed the house reading

An Act for the preservation [of the sever]all harbours wthin [this Province] read and passed the house the Seco reading.

An Act for Limitation of Certaine actions for avoiding Suits att Law, read & passed the house the second reading.

M^r Hamond & Docter Brookes sent to the Gouverno^r & Councill with the last mentioned Acts.