An Act for the preservation of Orphans
Reall Estates.

Whereas a good and profitable Act formerly made and the same is renewed and made this Sessions of Assembly Entituled an Act for the better Administration of Justice in Probate of Wills granting Administrations recovery of Legacies and Securing filliall Portions, the which said Act or any other heretofore made, hath not any ways Effectually Provided against Wast Sale and destruction Committed of in or upon the Reall Estate of Orphans to and with dwelling houses out houses Lands Woods Orchards and Fencing otherwise then what the Laws of England hath prescribed, which is thought too strict and severe for the present Constitution of this Province where men cannot enjoy the benefitt of the said Land without clearing of the same, in doing whereof Timber must be fallen which by the Law of England aforesaid is waste and the damag^s ensuing thereupon is farr greater many times then the full Value of the Land here, and it is most apparent that notwithstanding the Parents of such Orphans are persons of great Estates whilst living, yet their Orphants or heirs Seldome come to Possess or enjoy any thing more then the Lands and Plantations by them left, for the remedy whereof for the future Be it Enacted by the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties by and with the Advice and Consent of this present Generall Assembly and the Authority of the
