

Coll Low & Edward Pye Esq^r bring a message from the vpp^r house w^{ch} being read is as followeth (viz^t) Original Journal.

Upper house Aprill sixteenth 1684:

The vpp^r houses reply Therevnto

The Lower house by their Last message to this house haveing signified That their Committee is sent out to regulate their report made yesterday & that till they returne to the house, They cannot well Confeer wth this house, as is desired; This house doe approve thereof and desire that for the more Effectuall dispatch of the busines in hand, Their sayd Com^{tee} may not only be stirred vp to Expedite what they have in Charge, but may [be fully] Commissionated, to debate and Consider of all matters relat[ing to] both the perpetuall and Temporall Lawes for the result of Both houses, at the Conference in the Grand Committee.

Signd p Ord^r John LLewellin Cl &c.

A Committee for drawing a Supplementary Act To the Act for Trade appoynted

This house Appoynt M^r Clemment hill and M^r Richard Hall to bee a Committee to prepare a Supplementary Act To the Act for Advancem^t of Trade, and To Incert therein all such things as they shall be advised will be Necessary for the good and benefit of the people of this province.

And then was drawne the ffollowing message, (viz^t)

Lower house of Assembly Aprill the 16th 1684

A message relateing to the same

This house haveing appoynted a Committee to prepare a Supplementary Act, to the Act for Advancem^t of Trade, Doe desire the vpp^r house that if They have any petitions or Other matters before them relateing Therevnto They may be Transmitted to this house for the perfecting the sayd Bill: p. 22

Signd p Ord^r C Boteler Cler &c.

Which being read and Signed, was sent to the vpp^r house, by the s^d Com^{tee} who return and say the vpper house is Adjourned, soe they Cannot deliver the same, But that They will sitt very Early in the morning:

Ordered th^t the sd persones deliver the message to the vpp^r house as soon as They sitt and doe proceed vpon their Charge.

[The] house Adjourn till to morrow morning 7 A Clock: