

Then was read the peticcōn of Joseph Tilly prisoner & Referred to A ffull house, for further Consideraccōn.

The grand Committee meet. The House Resolve into a grand Committee, and Adjourne into The Councill: Where were p'sent of the vpper house

Coll Courcey	Coll Lowe	Coll Taylor	} [Coll ^o] Pye }
Coll Taylor	Coll Diggs	M ^r Secry Darnall
Coll Darnall	Majr Sewall	Coll Burgess

M^r Richard Hall and M^r William Richardson members of this house [are] denyed Entrance into the Vpper house by the Doorkeeper Except the would Putt of their hatt, Wherevpon arose some dispute between the Two houses, The Upper house pressing to proceed vpon the business of the grand Committee, the Lower house Answere they cannot, without their members, w^{ch} were kept Out. At last the vpp^r house give Order for the members, to be Admitted, for this time, because the more weighty affaires now Before them should not be delayed But to bee noe Rule for the future.

The sayd members were lett in and The grand Committee proceed

Then was read The Address to his Lōpp and the whole matter as then penned Agreed On and Consented to. p. 27

Then M^r Carvile Read the Schedule (to bee Annexed to the Address) To the Grand Committee of both houses, Which being done

The Comittee Adjourne To the house

M^r Speaker reassumes the Chaire

Whereas there are Two Acts of Assembly made both in the yeares 1649 & 50: One of them Entitled an Act against Rayseing of money wthout the Consent of the Assembly, And the Other Intitled [An Act] Concerning Leavying of warr within this province.

Voted That the sayd Two Acts be debated in the Grand Committee, And the bill presented to the vpper house at the Ridge made to Explayne the said Two Acts be insisted on:

The house resolve Into a grand Committee And Adjourne to the Councill Chamber, where were p'sent as before.

The Committee of both houses proceed To Debate vpon severall Acts.

Impr^s An Act Touching Judicature: Agreed That a new bill be drawne to Conteyne the sence of the sayd Act, And One Other Act Entitled An Act for proceedings at law, made An^o 1664: and p'sented to his Lopp:

^{2^{dly}} An Act for punnishment of Certayne Offences ag^t the peace & safety of this province read and Debated. And Agreed That a new bill now read bee presented to his Lopp for his Assent, and the former Repealed.