My Ld

As another Ship for London hath just called here to Clear out I embrace the Opportunity to remit Your Ldp seconds of the Bills of Excha Firsts of which I inclosed in my Letter to Your Ldp of the 10ᵗʰ Inst. Tis with pleasure too I inform Your Ldp that I had last Night the satisfaction to receive by Capt Banning the Box containing Your Ldps packet for Mʳ Allen wᶜʰ I sent him immediately, also the Swords & Plate Your Ldp hath been now pleased to present me with, & for which I beg leave to repeat my grateful Acknowledgments, my Behaviour on all occasions will I flatter myself shew that Your Ldps Favours have made proper Impressions on my Mind & how highly they are & ever will be estimated by Your Ldps obliged & devoted humbˡ servᵗ

P. S. Just as I was subscribing the above Lettʳ Mʳ Danˡ Stevenson who boᵗ part of Collington Mannour brought a Sett of Excha for £15 8 9¼ to compleat his Deposit the first of wᶜʰ Sett therefore I now remit inclosed in a separate Cover.

[Sharpe to Shelburne.] Letter Bk. III

To Lord Shelburne. Annapolis 20ᵗʰ Sepʳ 1767.
My Lord

Mʳ Macleane your Lordships Secretary having in a Letter of the 26ᵗʰ of May last transmitted me a Copy of His Majesty's Pardon for one Thomas Sawyer a Convict from Gloucester who had been transported to this Province, & having also recommended it to me in Your Ldps Name to use my good Offices in the Mans Behalf so that he might be set at liberty & sent back to England I trouble Your Ldp with this to inform you that on my speaking to the Factors here for Messʳˢ Sedgley & Co. in Bristol in whose Ship the said Sawyer had been transported hither they informed me that they would send him back again to Bristol by the first opportunity & they have since done so.
